DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This flat-roofed rowhouse is three stories high and two bays wide. It is located in mid-block. The surface is of painted running-bond brick, although the ground floor has been altered for commercial purposes.

A rectangular door opens from the right bay. To its right is a wooden post; to its left, a tow bay wide single-light picture window with brick sill and brick foundation. Two wooden courses sandwich the layered wooden panel separateing the first and second floors.

Second story fenestration features an elongated double-hung (1/1 light) window in each bay, with flat-arched brick lintel and stone sill. Proportionately scaled models fill the third floor bays.

An elaborate wooden cornice tops the structure, complete with dentils, brackets and rosetted string course.
